

Samaritan Aviation
Missionary School Teacher
Job Description

Reports to: Country Director

Works closely with: All Samaritan Aviation Staff and Families

Preferred requirements:

- Teaching degree preferred.
- Minimum of 2 years experience is preferred.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Exceptional organizational, time management, and prioritization skills.

General description: This position is responsible for the holistic well-being of the children while they are attending school classes. Further, the teacher will work closely with SA parents to broaden the scope of their families' chosen curriculum. This position will be responsible for developing and maintaining a creative learning atmosphere. The main role for the Missionary Teacher is to help disciple, grow, and challenge the students to set a high standard of learning and spirituality for themselves.

Responsibilities:

- Share the love and hope of Jesus Christ with all students.
- Leads through servant-leadership.
- Creatively teach various subjects, conduct projects, and facilitate new classroom ideas.
- Assists in creating sports programs, music and creative arts programs, and health programs.
- Teach students in various class levels in specific subjects.
- Teaching the children how to be strong leaders and to speak effectively, confidently, and successfully.
- Strives to build close relationships with each child.
- Help engage parental involvement.
- Write whatever reports that are determined necessary to produced.
- Continue to develop strong spiritual focus and commitment to the mission and purpose of the SA.